

RS#13: Educational materials developed through the Baltimore County History Labs Program, a partnership between Baltimore County Public Schools and the UMBC Center for History Education.

Investigating the Incidents

Directions: First, you must uncover the basic information about the incident. Then, examine the interviews and statements from the witnesses and try to 'put together' what actually happened!

➤ What questions did you ask while investigating these sources?

➤ On what points do these sources agree?

➤ On what points do these sources differ?